PATHWAYS !

Studying in France is an opportunity to get a diploma and qualification recognized all over the world without spending a lot of money!

All you have to do is reach B2 level in French (DEL F B2 diploma)

Students receive many benefits:

- ✓ low tuition, social insurance,
- ✓ rental subsidy,
- ✓ paid internships,
- ✓ discounts on using public transport and visiting public venues,
- ✓ legal right to work while studying.

International students receive a residence permit that is valid until the end of their studies, then a temporary Resident Permit, or APS ("Autorisation Provisoire de Séjour") for a period of one year so that they can find a job or start their own business.
